

Albuquerque's SouthWest Writers is a model of how writers can help writers and make an essential contribution to a community. Its commitment and spirit are exemplified by the generosity of the gifted authors who donated their exciting work to this splendid volume.

—David Morrell, New York Times bestselling author of Murder as a Fine Art

SouthWest Writers has been my home away from home: fan club, college curriculum, office, and life support system. With its members publishing this all-volunteer anthology as a financial transfusion, I can only stand in awe and admiration of an organization this grand!

—Parris Afton Bonds, New York Times Best Seller
Cofounder of Romance Writers of America,
Cofounder of SWW and namesake of the annual Parris Award

SouthWest Writers is one of America's great writers groups. You'll be dazzled by this anthology. Reading and writing pleasure at its best.

—Joseph Badal Author of The Lone Wolf Agenda (#4 in the Danforth Saga)

When asked how I became a published author, I always respond: SouthWest Writers. Winning their SWW 2010 Storyteller Award led me to an NYC agent and two publishing contracts within months. I can honestly say SouthWest Writers changed my life. Whether novice or veteran, I'm willing to bet SWW can change your life as well.

—Chuck Greaves Award-winning author of Hush Money and Green-Eyed Lady

Few things are more important to both new and experienced writers than the connection to and support of other writers. SouthWest Writers provides that network. This anthology offers a delightful sample of the talent found in our amazing group.

—Sarah Storme/ S. H. Baker/ Lydia Parks Award-winning author
